

This makes it all worthwhile. A United Church minister who never gave up.

An edited voicemail – May 3, 2009

Hi Casey, it's ***** over in ***** and I just want to share the good news with you that our case is finally 99% but for the signing of the necessary documents is complete.

That for us after 10 long years is darn good news. We didn't get as much, you never do get as much as you think you should and the other side never thinks they should give anything. Like our lawyer said that's the way things go. But its reasonable and helped us pay off our mortgage and stick around where we like the country right here with our two dogs and ourselves together. And our daughter lives a little closer now in Lindsay which helps a great deal with her twin boys and their other son. It's not too far for us to travel to. Things are looking up a little bit better for one of your old friends and clients.

Thanks a million for all your help especially recently we've got a great deal of help from the stuff we pulled up from guidelines on 363 and 333. I found it very interesting. I wish I would have had it a few years ago. *****And especially all through the years. I've got a huge font of your stuff here I'll probably hang on to. One of the things we won't shred.

Take care of yourself and keep up your wonderfully good work. I often speak of you to various and many people I phone especially the clergy unionizers and so on – anybody like that

So take care and again thanks a billion
